RADAR facilities and Changing Places sites

The RADAR key scheme is a nationally recognised scheme that provides access to quality public services using a key. RADAR Keys are obtainable for £3 from the Civic Centre on Oystermouth Road – 01792 636000

Changing Places provide accessible toilet facilities for people with profound and multiple learning difficulties and other disabled people who cannot use standard accessible toilets.

The facility provides extra space for disabled people and their personal assistants or carers, and a height adjustable changing bench and hoist.

The following locations have changing places facilities

- Civic Centre
- Quadrant Bus Station Public Toilets will need a Radar Key
- National Waterfront Museum
- LC Leisure Centre
- Swansea Railway Station

The following places have an accessible toilet and need a Radar key to access them;

- Welcome Lane public toilets
- Caer Street Public Toilets
- Maritime Quarter Public Toilets
- Healthmatic Automatic PC, Maritime Quarter

Wales National Air Show information for disabled visitors

There will be two Disability Zones provided at this years' Airshow

Cenotaph Area

Situated along the Prom between the Cenotaph and Brynmill Lane. Available in this area;

- Hardstanding access from the road to the beach and a ramp on to the beach.
- A designated area specifically for people with disabilities and their families
- Changing Places Toilet
- The wheelchair swing is also available in Victoria Park for family that wish to step away from the Airshow at any point.

Civic Centre

On the grass area at the rear of the Civic Centre by the Library. Available in this area;

- A designated area specifically for people with disabilities and their families
- Stewards to monitor the area and provide information regarding what displays at the Airshow are going to be louder than others.
- Accessible toilet
- The location means that you will be close to the Civic Centre for people that may need to find a quieter space and to access the Civic Centre Changing Place Toilet.

Please bring your own chairs and picnic blankets for comfort as these will not be provided.

Please be aware that the Wales Airshow is a fantastic day out for families, but the air displays can be quite loud, if your child/person you support is upset by noise please ensure that you bring any equipment or support devices with you such as ear defenders with you – These are not provided by the Airshow organisers. Some traders at Civic Centre and the Cenotaph areas will have ear defenders for sale.

First aid

There are two first aid tents at the Air Show with qualified first aiders in attendance at all times. Please ask a steward if you require medical assistance.
